

Privacy Notice

GLASGOW & WEST OF SCOTLAND FAMILY HISTORY SOCIETY
CHARITY NUMBER SC 010866

Purpose of this Notice

This Privacy Notice outlines the way in which the Society will use personal information provided to us. Personal information includes any information that identifies you personally, such as your name, address, email address or telephone number.

The Society recognises the importance of your privacy and personal information and we have therefore outlined below how we use, disclose and protect this information. The Council of the Society is the data controller, because we decide how your data are processed and for what purpose. Contact details for us are provided below.

How we use information

We use the information you give to us:

- to administer membership records,
- to provide you with information about news, events, and activities via the Society Magazine/Newsletter ;
- to provide you with information about news, events, and activities via the Society Enews (if you have provided an email address);
- to fulfill contractual or other legal obligations;
- to maintain our accounts and records (including the processing of Gift Aid applications);

Disclosure of information

The Society will only share your personal information where this is necessary for the purposes set out above. Information will not be shared with any third party without your consent unless we are obliged or permitted to do so by law.

Basis for processing personal information

The Society processes your information in the course of its legitimate activities, with appropriate safeguards in place, as a not-for-profit body and on the basis that our processing relates solely to members, former members or people who have regular contact with us, and that this information is not disclosed to any third party without your consent.

We also process information where this is necessary for compliance with our legal obligations; where processing is necessary for the purposes of our legitimate interests and such interests are not overridden by your interests or fundamental rights and freedoms; and where you have given consent to the processing of your information for a particular purpose.

Storage and security of personal information

The Society will strive to ensure that personal information is accurate and held in a secure and confidential environment. We will keep your personal information for as long as you are a member or so long as we are obliged to keep it by law or may need it in order to respond to any questions or complaints or to show that we treated you fairly. We may also keep it for statistical purposes but if so we will only use it for that purpose. When the information is no longer needed it will be securely destroyed or permanently rendered anonymous. A copy of our data retention policy is attached to this Notice.

Getting a copy of your personal information

You can obtain details of the personal information which the Society holds about you by logging on to the members' only area of our website or by contacting us using the contact details given below.

Inaccuracies and Objections

If you believe that any information the Society holds about you is incorrect or incomplete or if you do not wish your personal information to be held or used by us please let us know. Any information found to be incorrect will be corrected as quickly as possible.

You have the right to object to our use of your personal information, or to ask us to remove or stop using your personal information if there is no need for us to keep it. There may be legal or other reasons why we need to keep or use your data, but please tell us if you think that we should not be using it.

If we are processing your data on the basis of your explicit consent, you can withdraw your consent at any time. Please contact us if you want to do so.
